

ARKANSAS SUPREME COURT

No. CR 06-1133

MARCUS HANCOCK

Appellant

v.

STATE OF ARKANSAS

Appellee

Opinion Delivered January 18, 2007

PRO SE MOTION FOR EXTENSION
OF TIME TO FILE APPELLANT'S BRIEF [CIRCUIT COURT OF
ARKANSAS COUNTY, NORTHERN
DISTRICT, CR 2004-294, CR 2004-346,
CR 2005-106, HON. DAVID G. HENRY,
JUDGE]

MOTION GRANTED.

PER CURIAM

Judgment and commitment orders entered March 15, 2006, indicate that appellant Marcus Hancock entered negotiated pleas of guilty to possession of marijuana with intent to deliver, possession of cocaine with intent to deliver, and delivery of marijuana. The record before us also references that the negotiated plea included a plea to a charge of delivery of cocaine, CR 2005-105, but no judgment as to that charge was included in the record. Appellant was sentenced to seventy-two months' imprisonment in the Arkansas Department of Correction on the possession of marijuana charge, 180 months' imprisonment on the possession of cocaine charge, and seventy-two months' imprisonment on the delivery charge, with those sentences and the sentence on CR 2005-105 to run concurrently. Appellant timely filed in the trial court a petition for postconviction relief under Ark. R. Crim. P. 37.1, which was denied. Appellant has lodged an appeal of that order in this court and now brings this pro se motion for an extension of time in which to file appellant's brief.

Appellant indicates that he requires more time because he has only recently received relevant documents. The request for extension of time to file the appellant's brief, which is the first such request by appellant in this appeal, is granted. The appellant's brief is due here no later than forty days from the date of this opinion.

Motion granted.
